The Silicon Valley Basketball Club would like to promote good sportsmanship among its participants throughout our tournament, both on and off the courts. We would like to emphasize a couple of tournament rules: 1) Trash talking or taunting will result in a technical foul and disqualification of player for the remainder of the half in which it occurred, or if near the end of the first half, for one quarter. 2) Any fighting during the tournament or any tournament function will disqualify a player or coach for the rest of the tournament and/or jeopardize being invited to future tournaments.

We appreciate your support and hope everyone will enjoy the tournament. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact your division coordinator or myself.

Sincerely,

Jih Soong
Director
